FRIDAY, MARCH, : : 13, 1874.

OUR TERMS.

Hereafter our terms will be strictly cash for all subscriptions, Job Work and advertising. If it becomes absolutely necessary that we change Job Work of any description, it is with the express understanding that 20 per cent. will be added to our regular cash rates. We will not deviate from our terms under any circumstances.

A black cross X after your name on the margin of your X paper, signifies that the time for which you subscribed has expired, and that you are requested to renew your subscription. A red cross indicates that your subscription remains unpaid, and you are politely asked to do so.

HOME JOTTINGS.

Some of our pictorialists have tried them. They don't bite.

Prof. Macduff, lecturer on anthropology, organized a large class at Lancaster this week.

The health of Mrs. Dr. Blackley, Mrs. Ed. Pendleton and Mr. Elijah Curtis is still very good.

Moses J. K. Wilson and A. I. McMonigle, of Harrodsburg, paid our town a visit on Monday last.

Mrs. H. E. Davis opens the grand millinery season with a fresh Baltimore stock. See advertisement.

Our efficient Assessor, Mr. Gosch, has completed the assessment of the county excepting the stores, merchandise, etc., and is on his last circuit.

Judge Bailey, who had the misfortune several weeks ago to fracture his ankle, is now able to move about his house a little with the aid of crutches.

Mr. Greenberry Bright made his appearance on our streets on Monday for the first time since his painful and almost fatal accident several months ago. He uses his crutches with very fair success for an old man.

Squire Peyton and his knights of the felice intestine made the midnight ride in their evening dress and make fresh and attractive your parlors, sitting rooms and bed-chambers. Go to Hayes' for cheap wall paper.
